Parenting Top Tip Restorative Conversations

After your child has calmed down after a meltdown, a restorative conversation can help to mend relationships. They give your children a chance to listen, reflect, empathise and make things right. It is also a learning opportunity for everyone to plan how to deal with things differently in the future.

Step 1 – What happened? Let your children tell the story.

Step 2 – What were you thinking about at the time?

Step 3 – What have your thoughts been since?

Step 4 – Who has been affected by your actions? In what way?

Step 5 – What do you need to do now to make things right?

Treasure Hunt!

The sun is shining and it is time for a treasure hunt! Kids love treasure hunts especially if there is a treat at the end. You could make your treasure chest a matchbox or go looking for things to spot all around you.. a post box, a road sign.. Not only is this free and super fun but it gives your children a chance to see writing all round them, practice reading and there will be loads of lovely chat!
