

Barton Primary School Reading Activities Class Swallow

Here are some ideas for activities for you to do while or after reading a book.

These are purely optional and won't be marked, but we would love you to show us and will enjoy looking at any you've had a go at...

Find 5 interesting words in your book. Write down what each one means. Now think of your own sentences that use these words.	Draw and label a picture of a setting from your story. Copy words and phrases from the book that help describe the setting.	Find a description of a setting in your book. What atmosphere is the author trying to create? List the words/phrases that help to depict that feeling.	Find several adverbial phrases from your book. What effect do they have on the reader?
Over what period of time does your story take place? 1 day, 1 week, 1 month, or possibly years? Draw a timeline to show the events in your story.	Rewrite a section of your book as a playscript or as a text for younger children.	Imagine you are one of the characters from the book. Write a diary entry about an event from the book from that character's point of view.	Write a telephone conversation between two characters from the book. Explain from where you have got your evidence.
Write a blurb for your book.	Summarise the main things you have learned from your book	Create a list of keywords that you could use to make a glossary for your book. Now create a glossary with explanations of what each word means.	Anything else you feel inspired to do.
